PART 2: OBJECTS

3. Objects

The objects of the company are to promote the education of the public in the subject of the history of social movements and ideas; and to advance the preservation of and the engagement with historic heritage by—

- (a) identifying, acquiring, preserving and curating collections of documents and ephemera relating to the history of social movements and ideas in order to make them accessible to the general public as well as to academic and private researchers; and
- (b) using said the collections to produce educational materials and to organise events; and
- (c) engaging with other cultural and heritage institutions and community groups in Nottingham and elsewhere to further these objects.

PART 3: DIRECTORS

20. Directors' remuneration

No professional fees may be taken for remuneration.

PART 6: COMPANY BY-LAWS

41. Distribution of profits

Any profits generated by the company will be used to further the development of the objects and not be paid to the members as dividends.

42. Winding up

In the event of the company being wound up any property remaining after the winding up or dissolution of the organisation and the settlement of all the organisation's debts and liabilities, that property must be used to further the purposes of the company and in accordance with its rules and under the laws of the United Kingdom.
