

class war-collectivistsnot sheep.

I feel some facts about the people behind the production of the paper Class War need to be pointed out, because so many anarchists and alternative minded people seem to regard us as sheep, they also seem to regard anyone who might be an acquaintance of ours in the same manner, all following the same codes of extremely violent behaviour, (towards anybody) all sexist and all a bit stupid.

The Class War collective is a loose knit one, and is indeed a collective, in the true sense of the word; a collection of individuals, all with differing opinions, but with one common aim - to fight against class oppression towards a free society based on equality. People take it in turns to produce the paper usually doing so in pairs or groups of three. The two of us who are producing this paper have only been to one Class War meeting and we don't know any of the people who have produced previous issues all that well, SO WHAT!!! we have the same common interest: - THE ABOLISHION OF CLASS SLAVERY, OPPRESSION AND EXPLOITATION. You may have met someone somehow involved in the paper who is sexist, you may think that certain people who you regard as Class War are unnecessarily violent..., but to slag off the whole concept of Class War and to say that anyone involved

There can be no liberation without Animal Liberation

Animals are the lowest class imaginable; scorned, ridiculed, tortured as slaves the world over. People in the lowest castes of the human class system regard animals as lower than them, believing they exist for nothing more than exploitation.

Animals are born free in mind and spirit, just as we are; they should live free lives just as we should. humans are after all animals. belo-uction of meat, these animals are forced to live in a permanent state of torture & find no escape through death. Factory farms are concentration camps for millions of chickens, living permanently in such cramped conditions that they can't even spread their wings properly; Cows who produce milk are kept in cages mechanically milked & never able to

This dog will be killed to prove by autopsy that the alcohol she is force-fed has damaged her liver.

Million animals die every week simply for the production of meat. They die cruelly packed into overcrowded slaughter houses, knowing what is coming to them, waiting their turn in panic, pissing and shitting. You an animal put yourself in that position.... It is unnecessary to eat meat; with only two carnivore teeth, the whole human digestive system is geared towards eating fruit, vegetables and nuts. Not only are these animals killed needlessly, they live in prisons where the farmers feed them cement with their food so as to keep them and the farmers wallet fat. Think about it; visit a slaughter house. If the farmers of the U.S.A. used 1/3 of the land they use to feed cattle on (cattle which need not have been born) for producing cereal crops, for just one year, they could feed just as many americans and the entire 3rd world for ten years.

The production of dairy products is in my eyes, far worse than the prodcalves never see the light of day, they are kept in small sheds, cramped together until they are six weeks old, then killed for veal, sunlight is never allowed to touch their skin so the flesh will remain white and a delicacy

IT is easy to live on a vegan diet; no milk, no meat, or any other animal product or derivative, I have done so for one and a half years.

Animals are also used in laboratories to prove that shit like make up and perfume is safe, to prove that animals do silly things when they've got two heads or one wing. or when they are burned tortured electrocuted or confined to cages for months on end. These experiments are also carried out to find cures for diseases, when there is no cure only prevention; if we eat good food all our lives then we wont catch cancer. Experiments for medical research are farsical, how do they hope to prove anything when animals are so unlike us

THIS IS SICK... the rich killing thousands of innocent animals every year in the name of sport is sick...
