About Anarchism

Anarchism is revolutionary, anti-state socialism. In practical terms anarchists aim for the destruction of the power of the ruling class and for the destruction of relations based on domination and submission. This means taking over our industries and communities and changing them to meet the needs of all, as well as the ecological needs of the environment. Without this takeover we can struggle within capitalism but never replace it.

Anarchism will be created by millions of people, not by a dictatorial elite (we are not Marxist-Leninists) and all will have their part to play in shaping it. Power will lie in the organisations thrown up by and for the revolution, not with the political parties who will try to dominate and destroy those organisations.

The new society will not be born through abstract ideas, but will come out of the realities of struggle and the need for working class people to unite. Such struggle doesn't just involve resistance to ruling class power (strikes, mass protests and other forms of direct action) but also construction - the building of the new, locally-based federal organisations, plus the forging of solidarity and the willingness to go further.

There is no truce in the class war. The only answer to ruling class power is continual and widening struggle - for social revolution and anarchism.

Organisations

This year a much bigger list of organisations than the one included in the Anarchist Year Book has been produced. Rather than reproduce the same information the Year Book suggests that you get hold of a copy of this other publication. The Agitator is subtitled A Directory of Autonomous, Non-Hierarchical Groups and Such Like in Britain and Ireland and is available from the Anarchist Distribution Service (address given later in this section). Send them a donation of at least £1.00.

Ad Hoc Group

c/o Autonomous Centre of Edinburgh
(address below)

Set up to organise a demo in Edinburgh in 1997 against the death penalty in the US. The main activity of the group now is to maintain a web site (details under Autonomous Centre of Edinburgh) supporting prisoners including Kenny Richie and Mark Barnsley, plus a history of the ABC. Actively seeking new information on prisoners, contact us for details of the best formats to use.

The ABC aims at practical solidarity with prisoners. We support anarchist and revolutionary prisoners and those incarcerated for their political actions or beliefs. We support people who have been framed by the police, also prisoners organising and resisting on the inside. We welcome contact from prisoners, their relatives and anyone interested in getting involved in our work. We actively support people with letters, contact, material aid, pickets and publicity. We publish leaflets on particular prisoners and their campaigns, as well as general informational leaflets. Ultimately we work for a class based movement that will destroy prisons along with capitalism, in a revolution to create a real classless society: people working together without exploitation, hatred or terror, for a world based on co-operation. Anarchist Book Fair

0181 533 6936

m.peacock@unl.ac.uk

<http://freespace.virgin.net/anarchist.bookfair>

Takes place on a Saturday in autumn in Central London. Has been at Conway Hall in Red Lion Square for the last few years but this may change. Nearly all of the organisations and publishers have stalls at the Book Fair and there are public meetings, videos and so on. So many people attend that this is probably the key anarchist event of any year. Promotional material for the Fair is produced in early summer and is available from the Anarchist Book Fair Organisers, 84b Whitechapel High Street, London E1 7QX.

Anarchist Communist Federation

c/o 84b Whitechapel High Street
London
E1 7QX

<http://burn.ucsd.edu/~acf>

acf@burn.ucsd.edu

The ACF is an organisation of revolutionary internationalist anarchists. For us, anarchism is revolutionary working class politics or it is nothing. We seek to build a mass movement for the creation of a libertarian communist society. To achieve this we believe that revolutionaries have to be organised locally, regionally, nationally and globally. We promote anarchist ideas and means of organisation amongst those of our class fighting back. If you're serious about your anarchist politics, join us!

(See entries for ACE Editions in list of publishers and for Organise! in list of periodicals.)

Anarchist Distribution Service

PO Box 446

Sheffield

S1 1NY

The idea of ADS is to improve communication and coordination in the Anarchist movement by distributing anything of interest from and to class struggle anarchists. It has a mailing list of 120 groups and individuals. Folk send 120 copies of whatever they want distributed, e.g. a leaflet, pamphlet etc., plus a donation (if they can afford it) to ADS which then distributes it on their behalf. Mailouts attempt to be monthly but rarely are! ADS will also pass on news and advertise events via its cover letter if you don't have a leaflet produced. ADS will also put people in touch with each other (with permission of all parties) > Get in touch and use it!

Anarchist Information Network

Box EMAB (AIN)

88 Abbey Street

Derby

DE22 3SQ

AIN is a "federation" for non-aligned anarchists which started in 1997. That is, it is a network for those who want to work with each other a distinct from the so-called class struggle anarchist groups who already have their own federations and networks and, we find, usually do not wish to work with those who do not share their views. We do not aim to be exclusive about this. We will co-operate with others wherever appropriate but we state a position. We stand for freedom against anarchist dogmatism. There is no formal membership but anyone wishing to be on our circulation list should send a book of first class stamps and a small donation to cover costs to the above address.

ace@punk.org.uk

<http://www.punk.org.uk/ace/>

ACE provides a physical space and resources for independent grass roots groups, encouraging individuals to take direct control over their lives by working collectively against social and ecological injustice. ACE has an info shop with leaflets, mags, books, CDs, tapes, records and T shirts. There's access to computers, e-mail and the internet. We have meeting space and a reading and music library. Through Edinburgh Claimants, unemployed and other claimants join together to support each other against harassment. We resist benefit cuts and workfare schemes such as the New Deal. Edinburgh Claimants and ACE publish a newsletter, leaflets and posters - send stamps for copies. We are revolutionaries, believing the many current struggles need to draw together into one fight against the whole system of exploitation. Please send us your material.

Class War Federation

PO Box 467

London

E8 3QX

01582 750 601

The Class War Federation is dedicated to the overthrow of capitalism and the setting up of a society with the emancipation of all individuals. Class War believes in the regulation of production for need, not profiteering, and this is the basis of Class War's understanding of socialism. We are a non-ideological, non-sectarian grouping but we never let this get in the way of slagging off our rivals. We are committed to being as combative as possible, legality is just a tactical question. We will work with any individuals and groups who share our aims and are happy to be judged on our record, just as we judge others on their's. (By the way, where is our computer?) To contact your nearest CW group phone our hotline (above) or see the list of groups in our paper. For news of upcoming events and demonstrations send an SAE for the news bulletin London Calling

The IWW is a revolutionary trade union dedicated to the organisation of all workers, employed or unemployed, against the bosses. Presently there are over 50 Wobs in the UK with concentrations in Dover, Edinburgh, Swindon, Tyne and Wear, and Dorset. Our current activities include organising activities in Edinburgh, Dover, Dorset and Devon and among low-paid manufacturing and retail workers. The British Regional Organising Committee puts out an irregular journal called Bread and Roses which can be obtained from the above address along with other IWW literature. In addition to local activities and meetings there are general meetings 2-3 times a year at various places around the UK. The official newspaper of the IWW is the Industrial Worker (see entry in list of Periodicals).

The KSL is an anarchist archive and documentation centre founded in 1979. We aim to have as complete a record as possible of what the anarchist movement has done. To this end we have a huge resource of material dating from the 1880s to the present. Copies of our database of English language books, pamphlets and newspapers are available on disc to anyone interested. Foreign language databases are being worked on now. Our resources are open to all who would like to use them and visits to the library are welcome. We actively encourage donations of anarchist material, and we will collect, or pay postage from anywhere.

The Solidarity Federation is the British section of the International Workers Association, the anarcho-syndicalist international with sections in nineteen countries and contacts in many more. Our aim is a libertarian communist society, and we work towards this with both short and long term goals. The SolFed is made up of locals and industrial networks, which aim to be the basis of a libertarian workers movement in this country. Locals are groups of workers in a local area who organise around community issues and across industry, like a trades council but with real politics. Networks group together workers in the same industry to agitate around issues like health and safety, pay and conditions, and, ultimately, who controls production. We currently have networks for Communication, Education, Public Service and Transport. For more information about our ideas, particularly with regard to organisation at work, write to the address above.

An Irish class struggle organisation, influenced by the "Platform" of Makhno and Arshinov. We want to make anarchist ideas the most popular ideas around, so that a successful anarchist revolution can happen. To help achieve this we publish a paper, a magazine and a free bulletin. We also hold public meetings and are active in our trade unions and in campaigns we support. Recently we played a major role in the building of an anti-racist movement in Ireland, and in organising the country's largest ever demonstration against deportations.

New Titles

The Agitator

(A Directory of Autonomous Non-Hierarchical Groups & Such Like in Britain and Ireland)

various publishers

An ambitious project listing dozens of radical groups and aiming at promoting co-operation between them, thereby making our resistance more effective. If you're an activist, get hold of a copy. (See the beginning of the list of organisations for how to do that.)

The Anarchist Tension

Alfredo Bonanno

Elephant Editions

£1.75

Working towards new forms of organisation and resistance in the new world of information technology and post-industrial capitalism. One of several works by Bonanno and others, some new, some re-issues, that have just been put out by Elephant.

Armed Joy

Alfredo Bonanno

Elephant Press

£1.75

Reprint from 1977 with a short new introduction that doesn't explain who Montanelli was (he was shot in the legs but who by, and why, isn't said). Why was the booklet banned in Italy and why did Bonanno get 18 months prison for writing it?

Animal Ingredients A - Z

EG Smith Collective

AK Press

£4.95

"...concise reference for vegans, vegetarians. . . documents thousands of animal and animal derived ingredients. . .vegan nutrition. . .a thorough resource guide"

Blow Job

Stewart Home

Serpent's Tail

£7.99

Stewart Home has written several novels set in today's revolutionary movement but copying the half-witted sex-and-violence format of the skinhead novels that were popular in the 1970s. The publisher's blurb on this instalment claims that "anarchism and fascism are revealed as mirror images of each other" but reading the book fails to support this ludicrous idea. I have heard Home described as a "parasite" who "deserves a good kicking" and this book will only increase his unpopularity with anarchists.

A Critique of Syndicalist Methods

Work in Progress 2

Alfredo Bonanno

Elephant Editions

£1.75

Reprint of the 1975 attack on unions with a new five five page introduction.

The Diamond Signature

Leaving the 20th Century

(The Incomplete Work of the Situationist International)

Chris Gray (ed.)

Rebel Press

£9.90

First published in 1974 and long unavailable, this was the first publication in Britain of key texts from the Situationist International, the art theorists turned revolutionaries whose ideas are credited with having influence in the revolutionary upheaval in France in May 1968.

Mayday 98

Solidarity Federation

50p

"By 1936 White was fighting fascism in Spain and then raising funds and running guns for the CNT. This short pamphlet was a direct result of these experiences.

'1936'

The Ex

AK Press

£16.95

Potted history of the social revolution that thwarted the military coup d'etat in Spain in 1936 and that held out until the victory of Franco's forces in 1939. A small format photograph book with over a hundred photographs and two mini CDs (from the Dutch group The Ex).

No Gods, No Masters
(An Anthology of Anarchism)

Daniel Guerin

Ak Press

2 volumes, £11.95 each

Massive anthology taken from dozens of authors which amounts to a history of anarchism. Newly translated by Paul Sharkey, this is the first appearance in English of this work.

Out of the Frying Pan
(A Critical look at Works Councils)

Solidarity Federation

£1.50

"The introduction of European Works Councils will affect millions of workers and introduce wide ranging consultative powers. This booklet explains how, far from empowering people, Works Councils act as a tool by which management can control and pacify people at work. Just say no!"

Plain Rapper Comix 2

Pete Loveday

Ak Press

£3.50

Reprint (with some changes) of the cartoon strip, featuring Russell, that looks at cannabis smoking and goes into the history of hemp and the politics of dope.

The Poverty of Feminism

Dominique Karamasov

Elephant Editions

£2.50

"feminism, in spite of its emancipatory and radical airs, remains in the area of capitalist society. . . .only the transformation of social relations makes it possible to resolve the problems and needs that are lost in this cul de sac."

Propaganda and Control of the Public Mind

Noam Chomsky

Ak Press

£7

Double CD, the latest offering from the famous writer, anarchist and critic of US big business and imperialism. "An introduction to, and synthesis of, his key thinking on the media and its pivotal role in the relentless class struggle being waged today."

Propulsive Utopia

(Works in Progress 1)

Alfredo Bonanno

Elephant Editions

£1.50

Reprint of half a dozen articles that originally appeared in the Italian anarchist paper ProvoAczione.

Rage and Reason

Michael Tobias

Ak Press

£7.95

"The ultimate animal rights revenge novel!"

Revolutionary Solidarity

(Works in Progress 3)

4 authors

Elephant Editions

£1.25

Several short essays on solidarity with those of us in prison.

Seizing the Airwaves

(A Culture Jammers Handbook)

Ron Sakolsky and Stephen Dunifer (eds)

Ak Press

£8.95

Essays and interviews on the pirate radio movement, its history and ideas. Plus a DIY manual for anyone thinking of going on air.

Shibboleth
(My Revolting Life)
Penny Rimbaud
AK Press

Autobiography that centres on Crass, "the anarchist punk band (1977 - 84) who politicised a generation and put revolutionary activism back on the map for the first time since the 60s."

The Siege of Gresham
Ray Murphy
AK Press
£7.95

"A rollicking, hair-raising, manic ride across the abruptly blossoming war-zones of the urban northwest, (of the US) with a gang of fourteen would-be guerillas who have a score to settle."

Starkness At Noon
Richard Boston
Five Leaves
£7.00

Collection of articles on a wide number of topics, most of which first appeared in the Guardian. The relevant article is titled Mere Anarchy and is a rambling introduction to anarchism giving disproportionate space to the long-running feud between Vernon Richards of Freedom Press and Albert Meltzer (who died shortly before this article appeared in 1996). Boston sides firmly with the Freedom Press camp and his piece was very unpopular with Albert's supporters.

Aims to continue pre 1969 Syndicalist Workers

Federation tradition (i.e. syndicalism partly modified by/synthesized with an infusion of civil disobedience. Throughout the history of anarcho-syndicalism there have always been such modifications (in Spain Mulieres Libres and the Modern Schools). Also to publish pamphlets etc., specifically intended to argue with other traditions of the Left in their own terms.

Started out reprinting old books (classics?) but now bringing more new recent stuff (including the Anarchist Year Book every year and Searchlight for Beginners, a history of the supposed anti-fascist magazine). See elsewhere in the Year Book for details of Phoenix' loan system whereby you can lighten your bank balance and help get libertarian texts into print.

Small format pamphlets with a situationist-inspired critique of the 20th century, written and/or compiled by the late Larry Law. "If it wasn't for Larry Law no one would have a clue what situationism is. . . .He has to be the only situationist who attempted to make some interesting ideas accessible, probably because he cared about people and wanted to spread ideas. . . .Respect to the memory of Larry Law." (Educating Who About What)

Spunk Press

An electronic anarchist press, which freely redistributes anarchist texts (theory, actions, present, past, fiction and fact) via the internet, BBS systems, and diskettes.

Unpopular Books

have been dropped from the Anarchist Year Book (ie consigned to the dustbin of history) because their main activity these days is spreading nonsense about Green Anarchist being some sort of fascists.

Phoenix Press

After the revolution money will either be abolished or will grow on trees, I forget which. Until then printers need to be paid for their work. If you want to see more anarchist/libertarian titles in print then lend Phoenix Press £40 (or more) and every year you'll get a copy of the Anarchist Year Book plus whatever other title is published that year. The money is a loan, not a gift, and you can ask for it back at any time. (But you may have to wait a few months if Phoenix is skint.) Over 30 pamphlets and books have been published using this scheme so what are you waiting for? Rush your life savings to Phoenix Press at PO Box 824, London N1 9DL.
