Great Catalogs

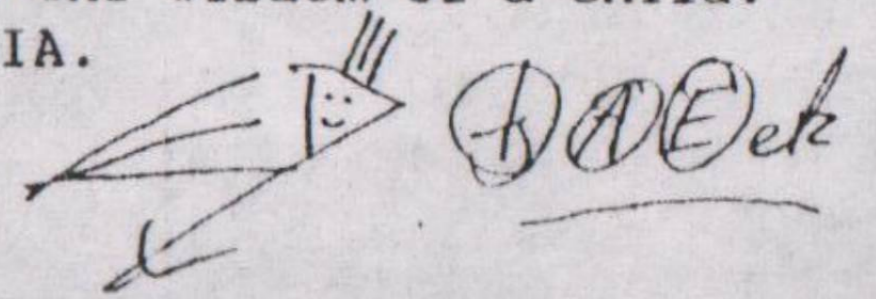

Hail Eris! Yes, I'm back again. This issue was assembled over a short period of time but hopefully you'll enjoy it just as much as ever... As you can see, I've devoted more space than usual to reviews, so I hope you actually decide to WRITE to some of the people I've listed within. Anyway, dive in, explore a new reality-tunnel or two, and keep your sense of humor with you always. Things aren't what they seem, but you'll learn more about later...

Due to a total lack of funding, if you want to get a load of 'zines to send out in your mail, I'm afraid I need a recommended donation of 2 pounds ppd per 25 copies. I know that's a bit steep but I can't afford to make a huge loss on every issue. Of course, if you are skint I'll send you 'em for free, but if at all possible please send the donation or as close to it as possible...

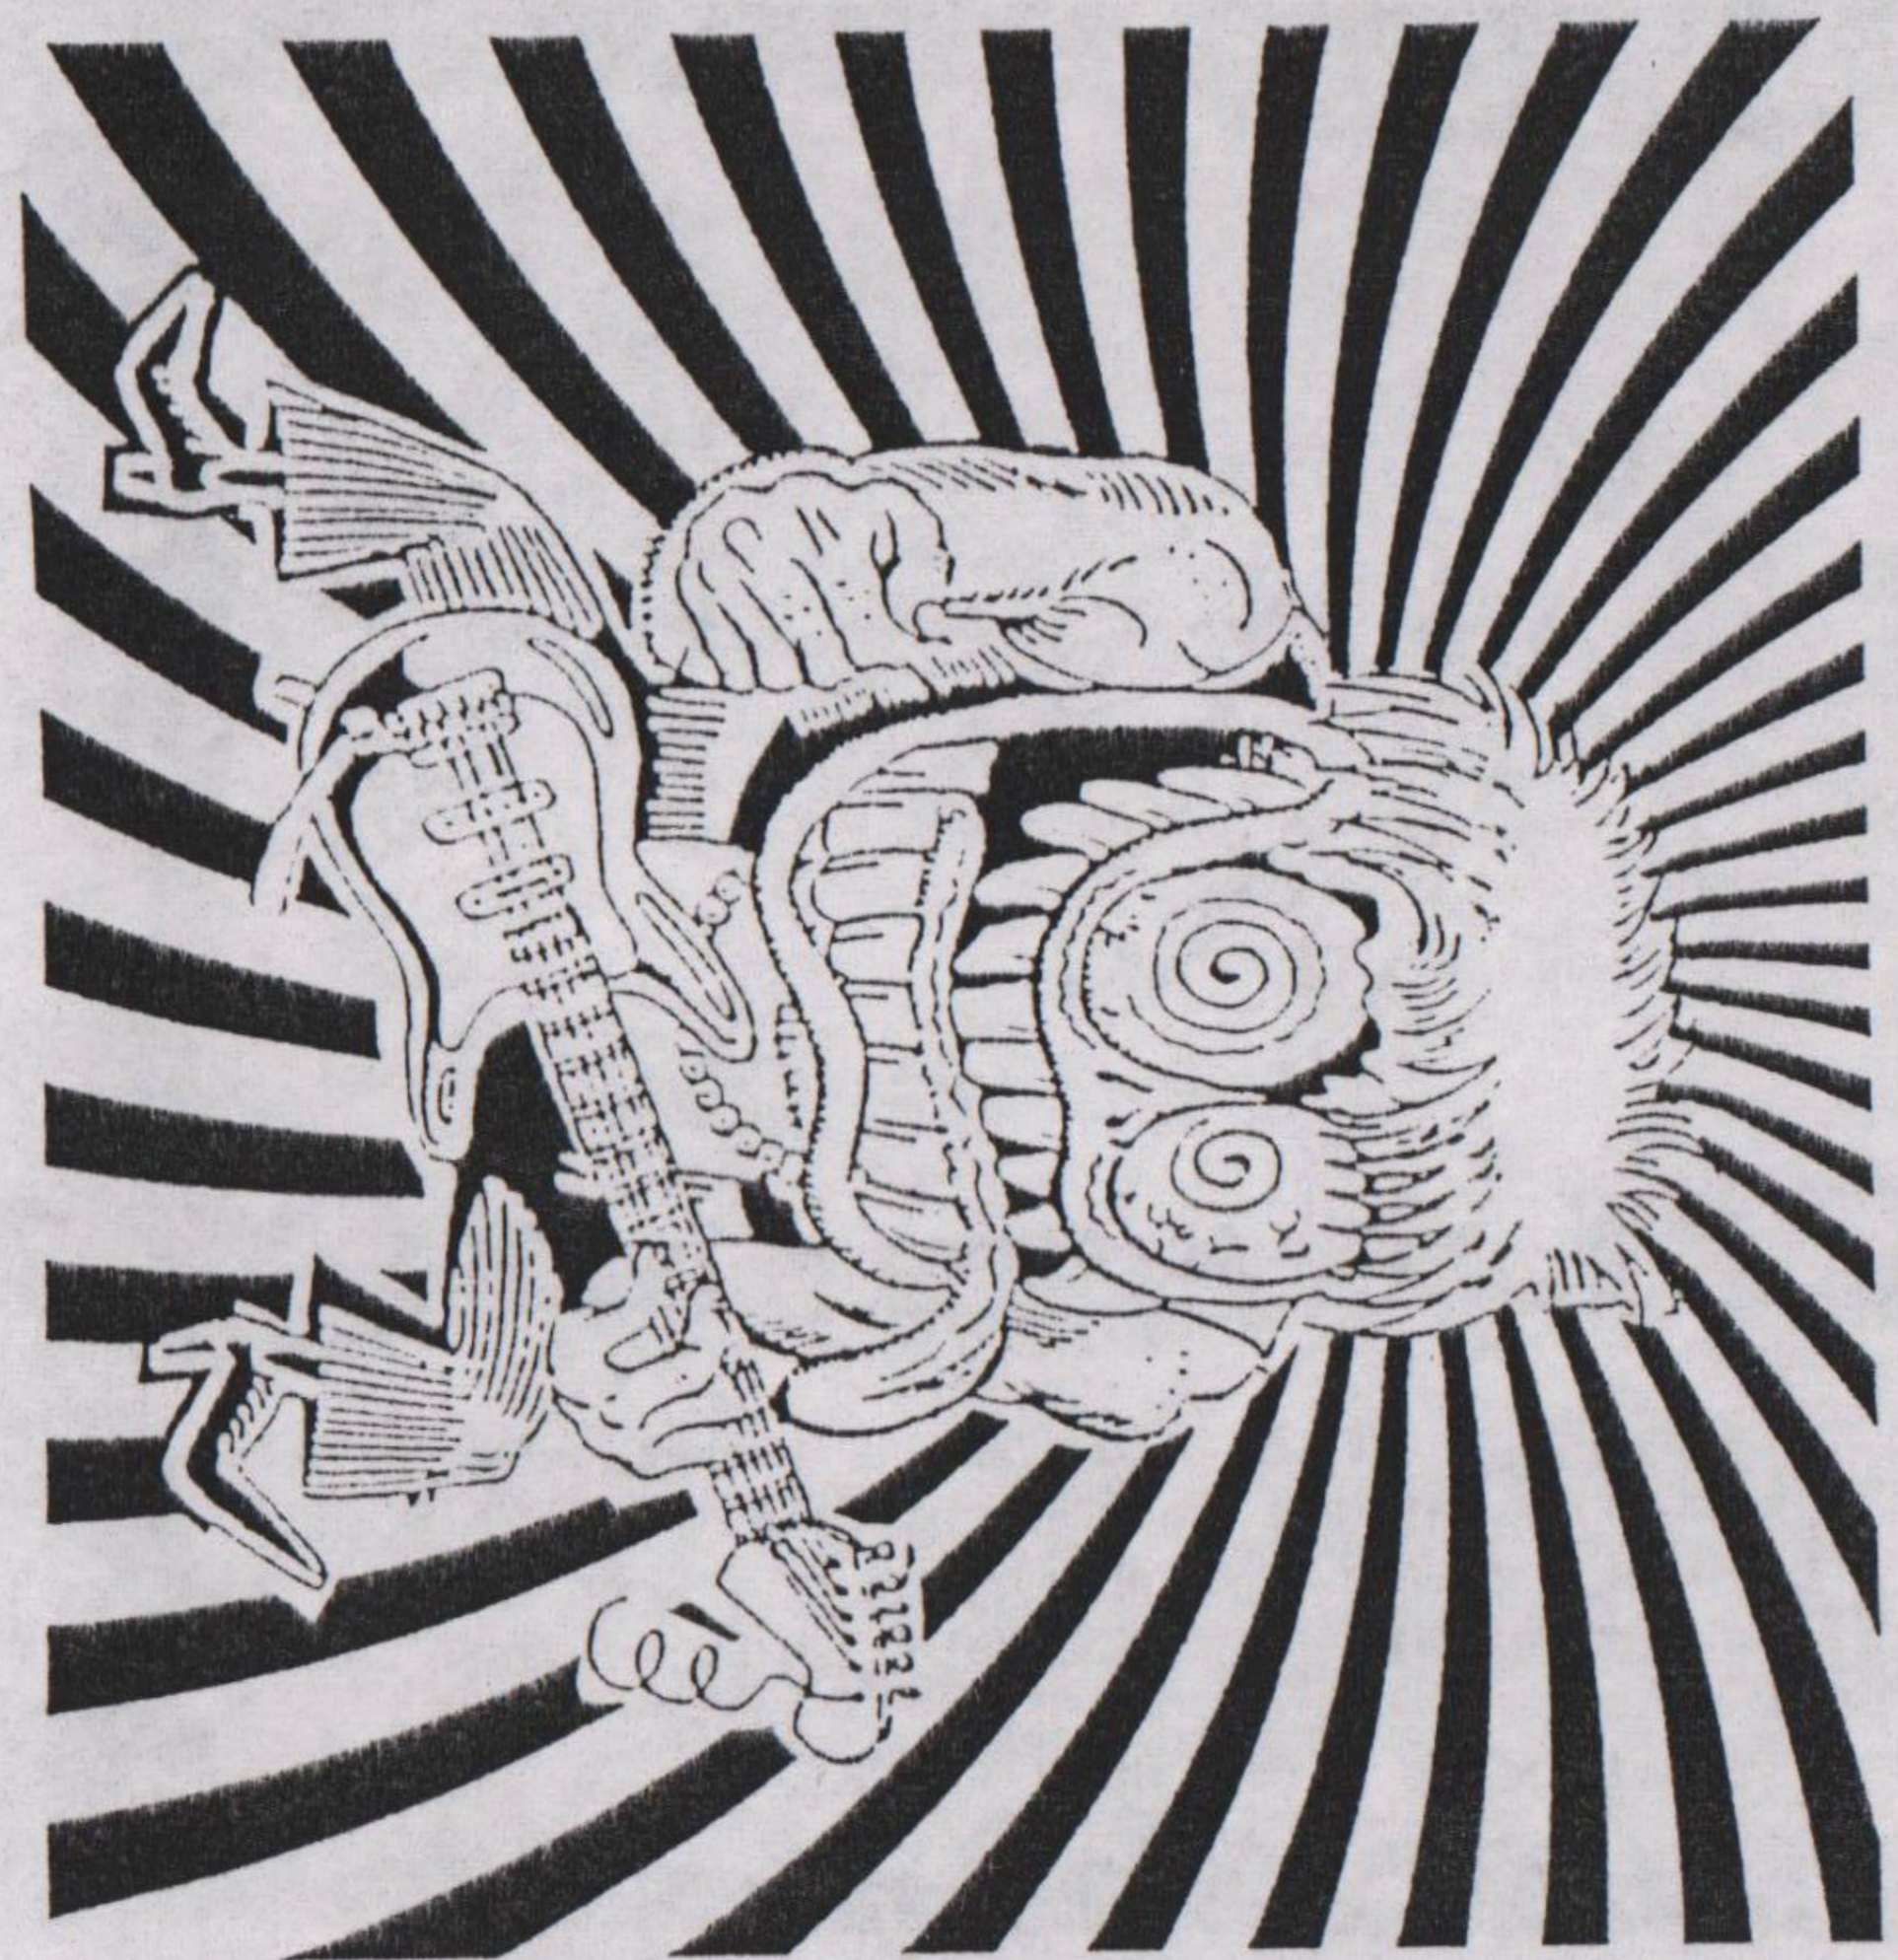

Single copies are available for a SAE/IRC to me. If you want to send me anything for review, please make sure to tell me the price and your address if it's not clearly marked on it.. Advertisements for #8 are being taken now. Write and I'll work something out. Also, I'm planning on having free classified ads in #8 (maximum 60 words). Ideally these won't all be advertisements, and mail art contacts, conspiracy theories, and cryptic messages will be included.

THANKS to everyone who helped me to get this together, and a big * OFF to that Neo-Nazi bastard who sent me a threat letter ("I'm going to burn your house down" - it hasn't gone up in flames yet!). Anyway, peace & equality, love & care to all reading this. "May you have the knowledge of a sage, and the wisdom of a child." - Malaclypse the Younger, PRINCIPIA DISCORDIA.

Zines. bands. distros...WRITE

Martti Koski's literature is the ultimate fodder for conspiracy theories. There are only two possibilities: one: that Mr. Koski is mad, which he doesn't seem to be, but you never know..., two: that BIG BROTHER isn't JUST WATCHING. His main pamphlet, My life depends on you! starts off with the facts: information on the US government's MKULTRA Sub Project 68, biological warfare "tests" in the city of Winnipeg in 1952, and so on...

Then it gets worse. In the 70's, Martti Koski went from his home in Finland to live in Canada. He started hearing voices inside his head. This, of course, could well be a simple neurological disorder and nothing else, but, when in 1979, he began to lose control of his body and mind, things began to get serious (of course, this could simply be the "neurological disorder" getting worse. He suffered a "heart attack" in December of the year and was admitted to the University of Alberta Hospital.

Then, the voice identified itself. It said it was a spokesman for the RCMP and that he had been chosen to be a "spy" for the Canadian government. A number of strange events occurred in the hospital, such as :

- he was told to take medicine by the doctors, but the "voice" warned him against doing so.
- When he decided to take it, he suffered heart palpitations (could this be psychosomatic? This is open to debate...).
- a number of sexual brain-washing "experiments" took place.
- a severe headache would occur whenever he tried to fall asleep.

When he left the hospital, he returned to his apartment. The "voices" and headaches continued. Deciding that he could flee the "voices", he left his apartment, living in cheap motels for 10 days. The voices still stayed with him, so he (stupidly) decided to go back to the hospital.

In the hospital, he was again in "training" to be a "spy". Again, he was treated as if in a mental asylum, and some of the doctors participated in "play-acting" to give this impression. Upon once again leaving to his apartment, but one day after he returned, "gas" poured into his room, causing his mouth to fill with blood. He was told by "the voice" that this was "his last chance".

He decided to move back to Finland, but to do this he would need a passport, something which had gone missing at the time. He decided to go to Toronto and apply for a new passport. The "experiments" continued, but his voice changed to a Finnish-speaking, female voice. He also was now occasionally called "microwave man".

He somehow got back to Finland, where things were no better. The toxic-gas "experiments" continued, as did various other forms of brain-washing. He finally chanced upon the "fact" that his "brain transmitter" did not work effectively in the open air, and soon after that the voices started to die down, although "they" still occasionally come back to him.

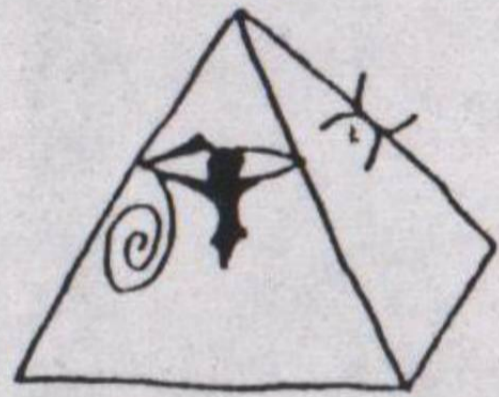

Perhaps the most startling thing about his materials are that there are others like him. Robert Naeslund claims to have had the same treatment in Sweden. And to back up the claims, there are x-rays of him that clearly show some "foreign body" at the base of his skull and frontal brain...

Either Martti Koski is a very good liar and completely deluded, or this is the ultimate proof of "the men in black" conspiracy. He has been able to gather reports from various news agencies on brain transmitters, none of which have ever seemed to make it to the newspapers. You owe it to yourself to find out what is going on.

Write to:
 * MEDIAEKO Investigative Reporting Group / Box 136 / S-114 21 Stockholm / Sweden (enquire about brain transmitters)
 * Martti Koski / Kanervakummuntie 5 / 21290 Rusko / Finland

I need conspiracy theories for the next issue... get in touch!

THE YEAR IS 2019
 NEO-TOKYO IS RISING
 AFTER WORLD WAR III...

KATSUHIRO OTOMO'S CLASSIC COMIC STRIP COMES TO THE BIG SCREEN

AKIRA

AKIRA is one of the few films that is worth the hype. Probably the best manga video ever, and the most expensive movie of its kind ever made in Japan. Based on Katsuhiro Otomo's mind-blowing comic, this animated tale is faster paced than anything you've ever seen before, and is conclusive proof that animation does not stop with Disney films and Saturday-morning cartoons.

In the post-World War III city of Neo-Tokyo, Akira, a strange power that holds the secrets of the world's future, lies in a secret government vault. Cyberbike anarchists rule the city, and psychics the size of children yet with the withered bodies of old men are hunted down and kept secret by Neo-Tokyo's military police.

The story concerns Kaneda and Tetsuo, two members of a pep-pill gulping bike gang that terrorizes the streets. During a street battle with a rival gang, Tetsuo, the underdog of the gang, is injured, and taken away to a secret hospital/lab in the city. He is put through a large amounts of tests, gradually losing his grip on reality as his powers increase.

In the mega-violent climax, Tetsuo escapes and releases his rage upon the world. Kaneda, caught up with a group of political terrorists, finally meets his former friend and discovers Akira's awesome powers. The fate of the world is held in the hands of these three people, and gradually slides closer and closer to oblivion...

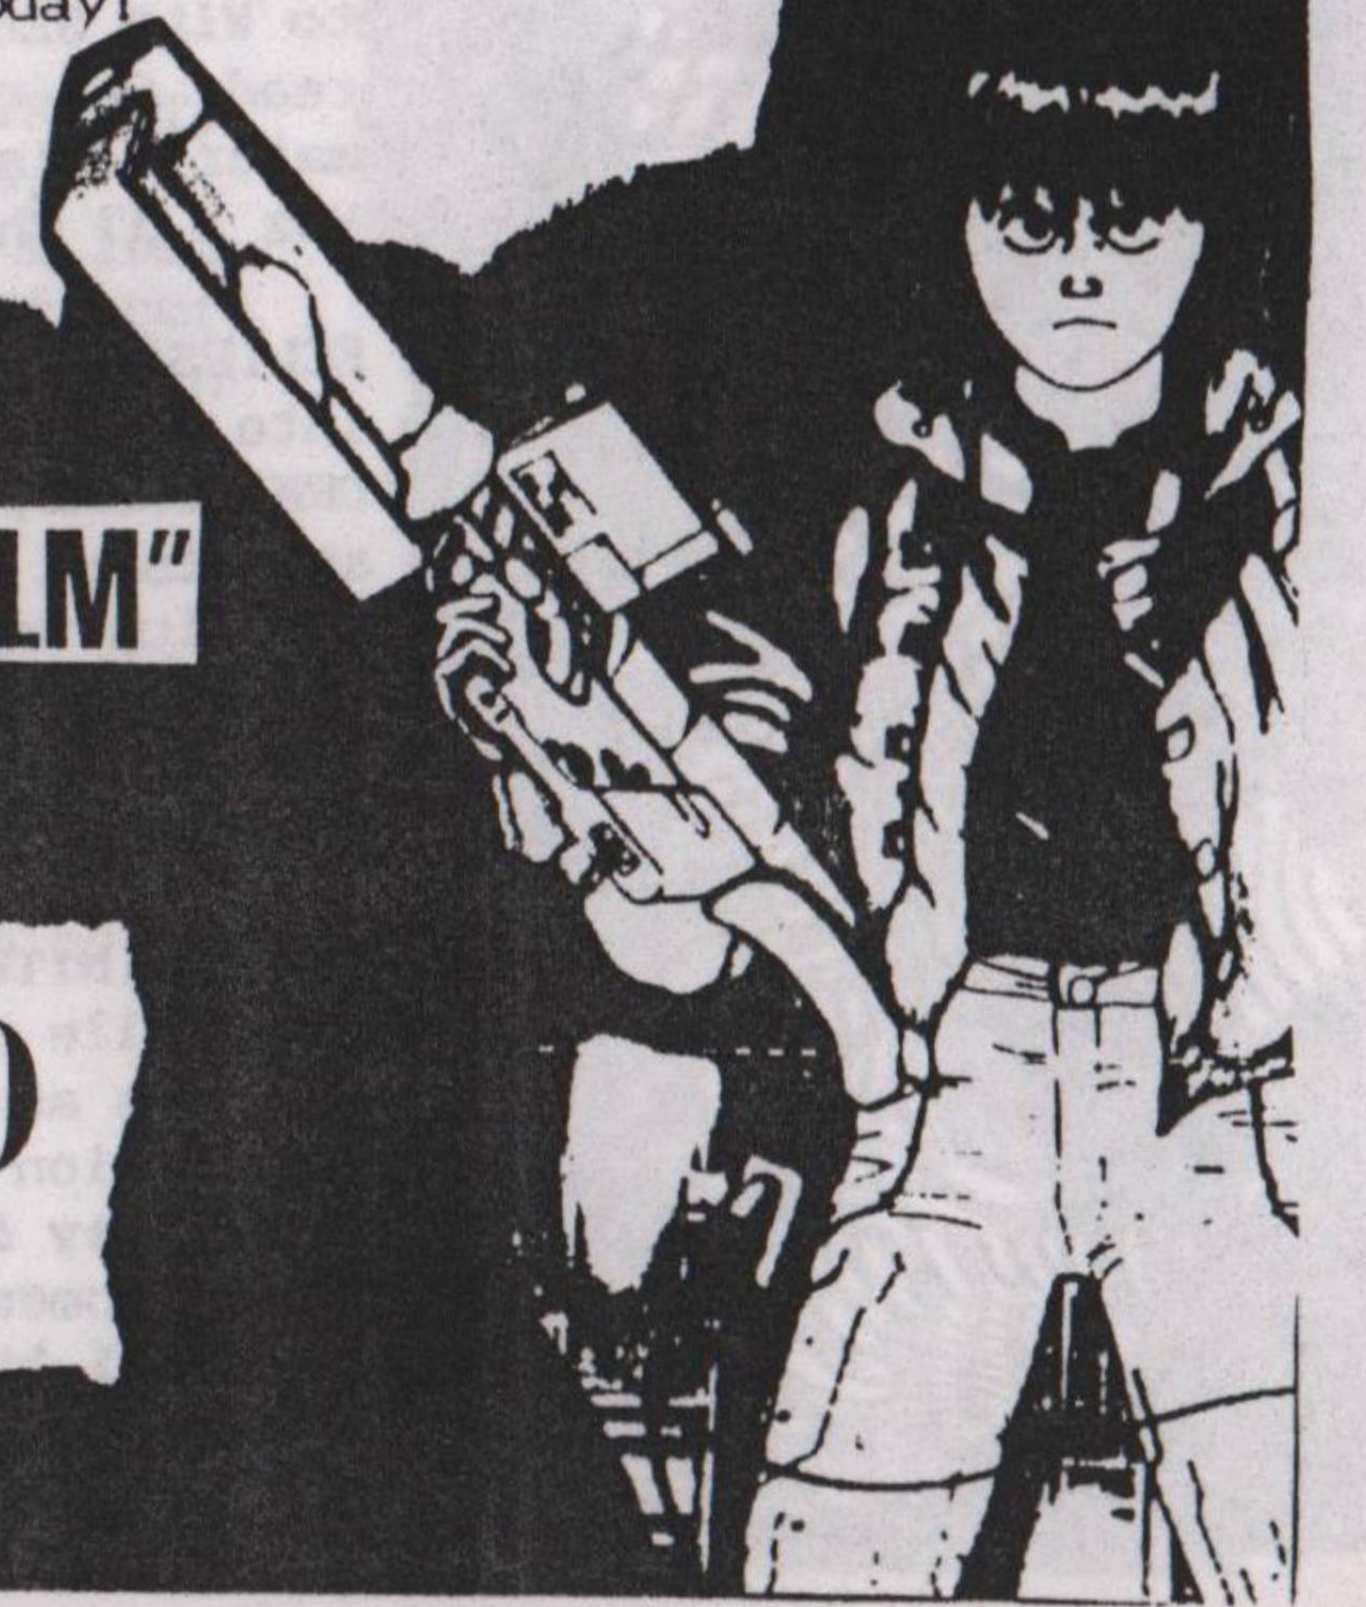

AKIRA must be seen. Not only is it the perfect introduction to the world of anime and manga videos, but it is beautifully told and will entertain and amaze you like no other film will. Follow it up with some of the releases on MANGA VIDEO, available at any good fantasy / science fiction store such as FORBIDDEN PLANET. Start with the brilliantly "kawaii" (cute) and amusing escapades of A-Ko, B-Ko, and C-Ko in PROJECT A-KO, followed by the darkly humorous DOMINION TANK POLICE, and finally the great VENUS WARS.

There's new manga videos coming out every short while, and manga magazines such as ANIME UK are bringing a whole new life to anime fandom. Now is the best time ever to start enjoying Japanese animation, so what are you waiting for? See one today!

REVIEWS!

UNIFORM HOLE #3 is one of the most worthwhile 'zines reviewed here. The short stories and articles in here are more powerful than anything Rollins has ever done, and much more repulsive too. Some topics covered within: pain, murder, anguish, and evil. Really good and ugly as hell. I can't recommend this 20 page fanzine enough. Get it. 30p + IRC
U.H. / Mac c/o Warzone / PO Box 148 / Belfast / Northern Ireland

REVEREND ROSCOE'S ALL-RHUMBA RAVE-UP is a collection of cartoons featuring that master of all that is strange: Reverend Roscoe! What? You haven't heard of him? Well, to tell you the truth, I hadn't before this A5 comic/zine arrived by mail one day. However, that is no excuse for you not to be enlightened by sending 30p + IRC to:
R.R.A.R.R.U. c/o Badpress / PO Box 265 / Manchester / M60 1FY / UK

STANDARD ISSUE #2 is a good 'zine with EMBITTERED, IN ANGER, and 4 PAST MIDNIGHT as well as some quite good articles and ethical consumer information. I only have one complaint with the 'zine - it often seems to preach a bit too much, something which tends to annoy me. Still, it is good and I think it will improve as time goes on and begin to be a bit less serious and over-ethical. It's 30p + IRC to the address below and worth it, if only for an excellent piece by Danny (Front Cover 'zine) on independence and self-sufficiency.
Sheena + Nath / 9 Links Road / Weymouth / Dorset / DT4 0PD / UK

GUBBAGRUB #2 contains interviews with HAYWIRE, KOBALT 60, FREEBASS, and CARTER U.S.M. and best of all... has a nice pink cover (Yeaaa!). There's a lot of good stuff to read in it, including THE TRUTH about WAT TYLER. Great fun and a good variety of musical styles covered. 30p + IRC to:
Mike / 4 Shortheath Rd. / Farnham / Surrey / GU9 8SR / UK

NON-PROFIT #1 is a handwritten 'zine with a layout that sent my eyes to pluto AND ALL THE WAY BACK AGAIN! I just love that psycho with scissors and glue-style layout! Inside there's an "interview" with Henry Collins (of the Collins Band... of course!), bits and pieces from other 'zines and loads of 'zine reviews. There's also a BLACK FLAG / ROLLINS / ROLLINS BAND discography shamelessly stolen from NME and various other (good) stuff. It's a bit expensive at 30p for 18 A5 pages, but, as James (der leader in chief on NP) points out, what is 30p in general terms... So, send 30p and a SAE / IRC to:
James c/o HOUSE OF NON-PROFIT / 2 Glendine Rd. / Kilkenny / Ireland.

NOSEBLEED #7 is the long-awaited return of this super-doojah fanzine. There's interviews with MDC, ERASE TODAY, ALICE DONUT, and BLAGGERS I*T*A, cartoons and graphics by Boz himself, and a tribute to WILD SEED. This is still Ireland's best 'zine and a treat to read. One of the few 'zines that is capable of delivering excellent material issue after issue. 40p + SAE/IRC to:
Boz / 37 Chalfont Rd. / Malahide / Co. Dublin / Ireland

ECLIPSE #3 is a doom/death/thrash fanzine that occasionally goes into other types of music. This issue has interviews with, DREAMBREED, PITCH-SHIFTER, VIAGRESSION and more along with large amounts of reviews and... that's it. Some articles, rants, and graphics would make this more interesting... Still, it's one of the few metal 'zines that covers other styles of music too. 50p + IRC to:
Chris / 28 Winchester Rd. / Alton / Hampshire / GU34 1RX / UK

THE INFINITE ONION #7 is a witty political 'zine that is really worthwhile due to the way it avoids the standard anarco-type articles and gets on with the what it does best: distribute vital information and great insights on the world we live in today. Especially good anti-nazi stuff and hints on "annoying the establishment". Good reading, even if this issue is slightly old by now... $1.50 ppd to:
I.O. c/o NEVERENDINGVEGETABLE / PO Box 263 / Colorado Springs / CO 80901 / USA

RUBBER WHAMMY #1 is "a stamp catalogue pretending to be a fanzine", according to the editor. Inside you'll find loads of rubber stamp designs which you can order through the 'zine, as well as a small distro list, some mail art contacts, hints on avoiding religious cults, and some reviews. It's bright, zany, free, and downright STRANGE. Well worth your IRC..
RUBBER WHAMMY / Top Flat / 541 Holloway Road / London / N19 4BT / UK

BHP #3 & #4 are hardcore 'zines from Kent, England with information, interviews, articles, and a slight SE feel throughout. It's clear that the editor puts a lot of effort into every issue, and there is always some stuff to make you think, too... I like it a lot. This one deserves more attention. 50p each + IRC to:
BHP / 1 Chandos Rd. / Tunbridge Wells / Kent / TN1 2NY / UK

ALL THE RAGE #1 is a must for all those wishing to find out the missing link between BIG BROTHER and the HSA, just what makes up a total bore, and what is going on in the wide world of libel.. Then there's also the regular fanzine stuff such as reviews and psychotic ranting. 25p to:
Trev / 57 Briardene / Burnopfield / Newcastle Upon Tyne / NE16 6LJ / UK

CLOWNS KILLING PEOPLE #3 is a SECRET DEVIL production and pretty darn good if you ask me... Edited and put together with love and care by a squadron of large Japanese mech-style robots with BIG GUNS who worship Rollins and such punkoids from the Nth dimension, this has to be the 'zine to get if you like cult films, Science Fiction, noise 'n' roll, and, of course, LARGE JAPANESE ROBOTS! Professional-looking and a pleasure to read. It's 75p + IRC (I think) to:
C.K.P. / Box 32 / 52 Call Lane / Leeds / LS1 6DT / UK

ADVENTURE PLAYGROUND #1 is an all-music 'zine that, to be quite honest, does not grab my attention as dozens of pages of interviews can get quite boring after a while... Still, for a first issue it shows potential, but it should try to have more articles and a more interesting layout in the future. There is no price listed, but try a couple of dollars to:
A.P. / 168A AUBURN ST. / CAMBRIDGE / MA 02139 / USA

BARPH #4 has interviews with the LEVELLERS, PAPA BRITTLE, BLAGGERS I*T*A, and RHYTHMITES along with an interesting debate on raving and various other bits and pieces of interest. This is quite old now but it's still worth 35p + IRC to:
BARPH / 8 Chiltern Manor Park / Great Missenden / Bucks / HP16 9BL / UK

NOISE FEST #3 is an anarco-type 'zine with interviews with DISRUPT, RAZORBACK, RESIST and EAT IT 'zine as well as scene reports, information on such worthwhile groups as ANTI COPYRIGHT, and a load of 'zine, record, and book reviews. A neat 'zine with loads of stuff to read, even if you don't agree with all of the views contained in it. Definitely a bargain at 75p ppd to:
Chris / 15 Ashbourne Gardens / Bradford / BD2 4AE / UK

BUGS AND DRUGS #2 is the stuff great psychozines are made of. It's vicious, offends everybody, and is extremely funny. YEAH! Amazing. Even better than #1. BE WARNED! Prolonged exposure to this may cause brain damage, psychedelic experiences, or even death (but only to PINKS and NORMS so you're o.k!). You too can warp your own mind! Simply send 50p + IRC to:
B&D / PO Box 960 / Bristol / BS99 5QU / UK

THE SLAB-O-CONCRETE SAMPLER is a 'zine and a distro list all rolled into one. There's loads of bits from the 'zines and comics stocked, all of them very good. A good introduction to a great distro. 20p + IRC to:
S-O-C / 37 Blake St. / Walkley / Sheffield / S6 3JQ / UK

INVISIBLE COMICS #1 is a real treat for me. Although I don't read comics often, I was more than a little pleased when this came in the post on day. Beautiful drawings and a good variety of stories makes this one of my favorite comics ever. Especially good is BOZO AND BOXXS, probably the most twisted comic strip ever! Go on, buy it and enjoy the medium of words and pictures at its best. 1 pound 25p + IRC to:

Darryl / 63 Whin Knol Ave. / Blackhill / Keighley / West Yorkshire / BD21 2HY / UK

ONEUROSIS #2 is the one and only magazine of the disorganization that is THE OUT OF ORDER ORDER. It contains a LONG article on Alan Watts, someone who I have never heard of before but want to hear more about after reading this article, crazy metaphysical manifestos and art-work and ONLY THE MOST TWISTED in the comics, kooks, and mail art scene of today. As I'm just a regular ol' dumb guy, some of the articles went slightly over my head, but what I did understand of it hauled my brain through never-never land at a speed that must have broken the sound barrier. Forget LSD, this is much safer and MUCH more extreme. 2 pounds 50p to:

000 / BM Indefinite / London / WC1N 3XX / UK

I could rave on about HOAX! #2 & #3 but I won't. Suffice to say this is the most worthwhile fanzine listed here. Full of funny stuff on pranks, hoaxes, and cultural terrorism that is even better than RESEARCH: PRANKS! due to the fact that it's less pretentious. The best part about this has to be the MEDIA BUNKER section... what I would do even to get HALF of the stuff listed there! #3 is big and bad, clocking in at 56 pages of action. You know what to do.. HOAX! #2 is 50p + IRC and HOAX #3 + IRC is 1 pound 50p to:

AUX / 64 Beechgrove / Aberhonddu / Powys / Cymru / LD3 9ET / UK

RIOT #6 contains interviews with NEUROSIS, DOOM, C.F.D.L., Al of SIN and NAUSEA, ANTI-CIMEX, Chris Boats of SLUG & LETTUCE, and those sickos in RUPTURE. This has to be the neatest handwritten 'zine I have ever seen and it's definitely worth getting. An ace 'zine for all those into brutal punk and hardcore. 75p ppd to:

Joe / 21 Ebnal Rd. / Shrewsbury / Shropshire / SY2 6PW / UK

ADVERSITY 'zine is yet another of these anarco-type 'zines that seem to be everywhere nowadays. There's interviews with DROPDEAD, SUBVERT, OI POLLLOI, and MISERY as well as a good amount of reviews, articles, and graphics. I liked the articles but they were perhaps slightly too short. Great scene reports, though. $1 (or so) to:

ADVERSITY / PO Box 1751 / Torrington / CT 06790 / USA

MYOPIC DWARF #4.... now there's a fanzine! Interviews with THE ABS, CAPTAIN SENSIBLE, THRILLED SKINNY, NOMEANSNO, HERB GARDEN, and COWBOY KILLERS along with reviews and crazy parodies of (s)advertisements. You really can't go wrong with MYOPIC DWARF! At 40 pages for 60p it's very good value. A smart 'zine with an attitude. Nice. 60p + IRC to:

Darren / 93 Hawkfield Rd. / Whitchurch Park / Bristol / BS13 0BH / UK

FATUOUS TIMES is the magazine of the INSTITUTE OF FATUOUS RESEARCH and a jolly good read it is to. This is the "Maps and mapping issue" so expect a load of odd maps to accompany the text and flyposters included within. From cultural terrorism to Bosnia to joyriding, it's all here. Well written and professional-looking, this is an amazing magazine. Plans to "take the fatuous out of everyday life". 1 pound 50p + IRC to:

FT c/o Play Time For Ever Press / BM Jed / London / WC1N 3XX / UK

LEISURE is a magazine in the vein of FATUOUS TIMES that contains flyposters, a comic revealing "the dark secrets of crime magazines", contacts, and subversion. Interesting and informative. A steal at only 1 pound + IRC to:

LEISURE / PO Box 368 / Cardiff / CF2 1SQ / Wales / UK

HEADPRESS #6 is the STRANGE issue. And it certainly is.... This is bizarre, ugly, deviant, and nihilistic. It's not pretty or for the faint of heart. Apocalypse culture and terror. I'm not going to say any more. You know by now if you'll like it or not. 3 pounds 50p + IRC to:

HEADPRESS / PO Box 160 / Stockport / Cheshire / SK1 4ET / UK

UNDERGROUND is a new free magazine that is full of anti-authoritarian rants, humor, and the very best of the underground. In issue #1, Stewart Home discusses what the English royal family are REALLY up to and the INSTITUTE OF FATUOUS RESEARCH discusses cars vs. penguins. An IRC to:

UNDERGROUND / PO Box 613 / London / SE22 9QT / UK

M.R. SAY is a phone-prank artist with tapes of his pranks available for trade of similar non-music tapes. I've got "INTERNATIONAL OPERATOR CALLS FEATURING BABY", his sixth tape. It's really funny and the pranks are broken up with strange "musick" and crazy stuff. M.R. Say is a true original and his tapes are amazing. Write to: M.R. Say / 97 Roystone / Kimmage Rd. West / Dublin 12 / Ireland.

SONS OF SELINA have a 7" out that has a sort of ska thing going on.. Catchy and sort of poppy, but not TOO poppy! A nice slab of vinyl that is original and will please anyone who likes a good tune. Very good. I can't compare this to any one group, but if you like ska(ish) stuff with a difference then this is for you.

Neil / 64 Ernest St. / Rhyl / Clwyd / LL18 2DW / Wales / UK

NEMESIS are a Dublin metal band who have a reasonably good demo out by the name of "Vorsprung Durch Dirtbag"... whatever that means! It's enjoyable if a bit too concerned with lead guitar and not enough on rhythm, but that's only my opinion and I'm getting fussy in my old age (sic). Write to them at:

NEMESIS c/o P. Horgan / 15 Croftwood Drive / Ballyfermot / Dublin 10 / Ireland.
