Voices of Hope

A magical evening of music and poetry

"One donation, twice the impact"

"It's #GivingTuesday and we need your help to continue to provide weekly groceries and casework. The cost of living crisis continues to impact people we work with, making it difficult to afford essential goods.

For one week from November 28th until December 5th, your support will be doubled.

You can share our message and work with your friends and family, and on social media.

Come and Sing with John Rutter

Sunday 21 January 2024

Royal Concert Hall, Nottingham

10.00am doors open to collect scores

13.30pm take your seats as soon as possible

14.00pm singing starts

If you love singing and can read a bit of music, this inspiring workshop is for you. Led by the celebrated composer and conductor John Rutter and accompanied by Neil Taylor, Come and Sing is an afternoon of choral singing to lift the spirits. Music will be a mixture of old and new, including some of John Rutter's own well-loved choral works. If you're not a singer yourself, you can come along and enjoy the music as a supporter.

BOX OFFICE: 0115 989 5555; www.trch.co.uk TICKETS*:

SINGERS: £26; SUPPORTERS: £14. Tickets include tea/coffee and biscuits during the interval.

RUNNING TIME: 3 hrs 30 mins including a 30 min interval.

AGE SUITABILITY: 12+*

It is advisable to arrive early to collect your music scores and to be seated according to your voice part as soon as possible after 13.30 to start immediately at 14.00.

The proceeds from this concert will help to support asylum seekers and refugees in Nottingham and Notts through Nottingham and Nottinghamshire Refugee Forum and Nottingham Arimathea Trust
