Winston Silcott: still waiting for justice

THE FAMILIES of the Tottenham Three, along with the recently released Mark Braithwaite and Engin Raghip, have launched the Winston Silcott Defence Campaign.
In 1984 Winston was attacked at a party by a well-known criminal gang armed with knives after Winston tried to shelter a young man whom the gang was after. Winston defended himself and subsequently the gang leader, Anthony Smith, died. Winston then surrendered himself at the police station.
While he was on bail awaiting trial police made him the prime suspect in the killing of PC Blakelock and the media portrayed him as a murderer. His subsequent trial in the Anthony Smith case was hopelessly biased.
Winston still needs our support.
